- Stein for State Representative,
- Committee to Elect Manning,

- LaTourette for Ohio,
- Campaign to Elect James M. Hoops,
- Citizens to Elect Craig Riedel,
- Friends of Bill Reineke,
- Friends for Steve Arndt,
- Friends of Ryan Smith,
- Friends of Jay Edwards,
- Friends of Jonathan Dever, and
- Citizens for Rezabek

The Statements of Designation of Counsel for these Respondents are attached.

It was and is lawful for a corporate PAC/Separate Segregated Fund to make contributions to Respondents. While Mr. Austin acknowledges in his Complaint “I am not a lawyer nor have I consulted one in the drafting of this document”, no one should have to respond to a Complaint that on its face makes no allegation of any unlawful conduct.

It is perfectly lawful for corporate sponsored PACs to make political contributions whether or not the sponsoring corporation is the subsidiary of a foreign corporation. Yet, that lawful conduct is all that the Complaint alleges.

The Complaint repeatedly states that “the PAC made” the contributions at issue. See, Complaint at p. 6. There is no claim that the contributions were improperly reported, or were concealed, or were made by any entity other than the corporate PAC. Indeed, the Complaint claims no knowledge of the contributions apart from what was publicly reported on the Federal Elections Commission’s website.

Mr. Allen’s Complaint expresses gross ignorance of how campaign finance operates. Mr. Austin confuses the basic difference between a corporation and a corporate PAC. The Complaint makes no claim that Respondents received any corporate contribution from any corporation’s treasury funds, but merely alleges that Respondents received PAC contributions. There is no law against that.

WHEREFORE, the above listed Respondents respectfully submit that the Complaint against them should be dismissed.

Very Truly Yours,

Donald C. Brey
