Re: MUR 7594

To Whom It May Concern:

The purpose of this letter is to provide an initial formal response on behalf of Clark Boyd for State Representative to a Federal Election Commission (FEC) letter that I received on May 6, 2019, dated April 18, 2019 and referenced as MUR 7594. Said letter references a complaint alleging Clark Boyd for State Representative may have violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971. More specific, complainant Alexander Austin of Parker, Colorado alleges Clark Boyd State Representative violated federal election laws by accepting a $250 donation from “a foreign national,” to wit: Enbridge (U.S.) Inc. Political Action Committee (Enbridge-DCP PAC).

Complainant incorrectly believes that contributions from Enbridge (U.S.) Inc. PAC (Enbridge-DCP PAC) are illegal because its parent company, Enbridge, Inc., is based in Calgary, Canada, and therefore the PAC “acts as an agent of foreign interests.” Enbridge (U.S.) Inc. PAC (Enbridge-DCP PAC) is a Political Action Committee duly organized, registered and qualified with the FEC (FEC Lobbyist/Registrant PAC ID C00429662). Enbridge (U.S.) Inc. is a Delaware corporation (which complainant himself acknowledges) and a wholly owned subsidiary of Enbridge Inc. Enbridge (U.S.) Inc.’s principal place of business is located in Houston, Texas, and, through its subsidiaries, has approximately 3,500 employees in the United States across 41 states.

As such, the contribution received by Clark Boyd for State Representative from Enbridge-DCP PAC is entirely legal and appropriate. Complainant is mistaken in his belief that Enbridge (U.S.) Inc. or its PAC are acting on behalf of a foreign national for the purposes of federal campaign laws. Enbridge (U.S.) Inc. is no more a foreign national than are Nissan and Samsung (both of which duly incorporated and operating in the U.S.) or Anheuser-Busch and General Electric (both of which founded in the U.S. but now owned by foreign corporations).

If you should need any additional information please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very Truly Yours,

Clark Boyd
