Re: Matter Under Review 7594

Dear Mr. Jordan:

We write as counsel to the Gene Green Congressional Campaign, the federal campaign committee of former U.S. Representative Gene Green and Helen Green, in her official capacity as Treasurer ("Respondents"), in response to the Complaint filed by Alexander Austin on April 8, 2019 ("Complaint") in the above-referenced matter. Respondents' designation of counsel is enclosed.

On June 14, 2019, we submitted to the Federal Election Commission a response to the Complaint on behalf of several other federal campaign committees. The Respondents are joining that response in full. Therefore, in the interest of efficiency, we respectfully request that the Commission considers the June 14, 2019 submission to have been submitted on the Respondent's behalf as well.

Should you have any questions or require clarification, please do not hesitate to contact Rachel Jacobs at racheljacobs@perkinscoie.com or (202) 654-6219.

Very truly yours,

Marc E. Elias
Brian G. Svoboda
Rachel L. Jacobs

Please consider the below our response from Jason Lewis for Congress:

In response to the complaint, Jason Lewis for Congress (“JLFC”) accepted a contribution from a federal political committee that was registered with the FEC. Because of this the JLFC was comfortable accepting a legal contribution from it based on the good faith belief that they were compliant with federal law. If there is a reason to believe otherwise we will of course refund the donation immediately. Regardless, there was no violation of the law as alleged against JLFC and the complaint should be dismissed.
