Dear Ms. Ross:

This will confirm our telephone conversation earlier this week in which we discussed the due date for the response to the FEC letter dated December 13, 2019. As I mentioned, the letter addressed to the city law department did not arrive until 12/24. The mayor's office received theirs yesterday. I believe the earliest receipt was on 12/19 by the mayor at his home. Because I have to have affidavits signed and with the holidays many people are on vacation, I wanted to let you know that I will endeavor to have the response out in the mail on or before Monday, January 6, 2020. If this presents any problem, please let me know immediately. If you have any questions on this matter, please don't hesitate to call me on my cell . Thank you for your time earlier this week.

Kevin.
